MARION,

R. W. Morehead, assisted by Rev. Martin E. Miller, of Fredonia, Rev. Nicholson, of Kuttawa, and Rev. Conway, of Marion. The eulogies on her name and character were appropriate and feelingly delivered. The floral offerings were profuse, many beautiful emblems being in the lot.

The burial was in the family lot in New Bethel cemetery last Tuesday afternoon and was attended by an immense crowd.

Special Session at Dyer Hill Church.

After preaching rendered by brother John Lockhart from the text, "Look ye Out," (Acts 6:4) Dyer Hill church met in special session Saturday, Oct. 27, 1906, for the purpose of electing one deacon and ordaining two. After organization of the presbytery Brother W. R. Gibbs was elected to act as moderator and sister Anna Ramage as secretary of said meeting. After election of two brothers, they both refusing to serve, the presbytery proceeded with the ordination of brother L. N. Ramage. After questions by brother W. R. Gibbs the presbytery moved to accept Brother Ramage. Brother Carroll Levan was chosen to pray the prayer of ordination, after which laying on of the hands by presbytery followed by the charges given by Brother Lockhart and song "Wondrous Glory" and hands of presbytery and christian fellowship were given.

Be it resolved by the presbytery that a copy of same be presented to the county papers of Livingston and Crittenden counties.

A Last Appeal to Democrats.

W. F. COWPER.

TO MY FELLOW DEMOCRATS OF CRITTENDEN AND LIVINGSTON COUNTIES

On next Tuesday the good Democrats of Livingston and Crittenden counties will cast their votes to select their nominee for Representative. I come with clear hands asking your support on my record as a Democrat.

I fully appreciate the importance to the people of the office to which I aspire but feel that the good counties of Crittenden and Livingston will cheerfully honor one of the honest sons when he has striven to be worthy of the trust of his fellow citizens. If I am chosen as the candidate of my party I shall be the candidate of the whole party and not the representative of any faction, clique or machine. Should I be unfortunate as to be nominated and elected I shall count myself the servant of the whole people and advocate measures of general interest to the citizens of the state and do so without fear or favor. I was born and raised on a farm and taught in the public schools and feel that I know the educational and agricultural interests of our people, and will, if elected, support measures in the general assembly of Kentucky of general interest to them.

My record as a democrat is known and cannot be questioned. The democratic party has never called upon me and called in vain, however persistent the hour or uncertain the consequences and a democratic nomination

Gen. Hays Last Saturday.

Attorney General N. B. Hays spoke here as per announcement last Saturday and spent Sunday in the city. Monday he spoke at Salina. He had good audiences at both speakings and was given a respectful hearing. Gen. Hays carried this county at a former election.

WARM HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE PROMISED

Marion Students to Meet Morganfield Students in the Latter City Friday Night, November 23d.

The Morganfield high school has challenged the Marion high school to a joint debate Friday night, November 23d and the challenge has been accepted. The proceeds are for the Morganfield school library. The Morganfield high school agrees to pay the expenses of the contestants from Marion and that of their teacher and also agrees to entertain the friends of the contestants who desire to attend the debate.

The Morganfield speakers will be Mr. Paul Smith, Mr. Thos. Waller and Miss Verbie Coffman and for Marion the speakers will be Miss Annie Dean, Miss Fenwick Wathen and Mr. Gray Rochester. According to agreement each school is to select one judge and these judges will select the third judge and it is also agreed that all the judges shall be non-residents of either town. Forty minutes will be given to each side to present its argument. The question is "Resolved, that the United States is following in the footsteps of ancient Rome." Marion school has the negative side.

The contest will be spirited but friendly and is looked forward to with the keenest of interest by the friends of the Marion school and we predict they will carry off the honors.

"UNCLE TOMMY" MAYES DIES NEAR HERE.

Nonagenarian Passes to His Reward Honored and Loved by All—Biographical Sketch.

G. T. Mayes, an old and highly respected citizen of the Marion vicinity, died Tuesday and the remains were brought here that night and taken to the residence of G. C. Dollar, Mrs. Dollar being his neig. The funeral was preached at one o'clock at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Benjamin Andres. The interment took place in the old cemetery beside the remains of his wife last Wednesday afternoon.

George Thomas Mayes was born Oct. 18, 1815, and was therefore in his ninety-second year. He was born in the county two miles south of Marion, but nearly thirty years before Marion was settled. He was married three times. His first wife was Miss Narcissa McCarter, of Livingston county. She died in 1856, leaving three children, William and Sarah, of this county, and Alice, of Washington.

His second wife was Miss Maria Stinson. She died about 25 years ago and he then married Mrs. Sarah Rice, who was killed a few years ago at a railroad crossing road G. W. Howerton's residence northeast of the city. His second wife bore him one son, James, who is now living in Iowa.

Mr. Mayes was a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church here and had been a deacon of a church at continuously ever since the war except probably while he was away a short time in Iowa.

An Enjoyable Dance.

The young society folks gave a delightful dance at the opera house last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The ten string orchestra finished the music, which was good and added cheer to the persons of the evening.

Democrats of Livingston County Endorse W. F. Cowper for the Legislature

READ WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY FOR "THE GOOD OF THE PARTY."

To the Democrats of Crittenden and Livingston Counties —

We, the undersigned Democrats of Livingston county, would most respectfully submit for your careful and favorable consideration, the candidacy of our friend and fellow democrat, W. F. Cowper, for the Democratic nomination to represent the two counties in the lower house of the next General Assembly of the State of Kentucky. We most cheerfully state, not only in his behalf, but in the interest of the Democratic party of the two counties, that it is our honest opinion, that he can come nearer harmonizing all differences that have heretofore existed in the party in Livingston county, than any other man we know of in the county of Livingston.

We know that his democracy is of the purest type, and that he is in every way worthy of the support of every voter in the two counties. He has conducted himself in such a way as not to have incurred the ill will or enmity of anyone, and yet at the same time has given unstinted and loyal support to his party.

We appeal to all democrats in both counties, in the interest of harmony and good will, to support him in his ambition to secure the nomination, and we feel confident that you shall never, by any act of his, have cause to regret it.

We further state that none of us were candidates in the late Democratic primary or final election in Livingston county, and that we believe that the nomination of W. F. Cowper for the Legislature will result in good to the party.

MORE CLIPPINGS FROM TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON)

Singing "My Old Kentucky Home."

Prof. Kee made some announcements concerning the Marion public schools followed by J. B. McNeely, who highly recommended the Marion graded school for the consideration of pupils who wish to attend a school of high order.

Civics were discussed by T. F. Newcomb. He would teach civics in connection with history and geography.

Comparison of state and national government by E. E. Phillips. He brought out the fact of the relation of the state and national constitution. He brought out some good principles. Followed by Marion Richards. She showed that the state government is founded upon the constitution of the United States.

Citizenship by L. C. Morgan. He read an excellent paper setting forth the duty of citizenship. Followed by J. C. Hardin, who read another good paper on the subject.

Importance of local civics. M. C. Smart said he would begin by teaching the government of the home, school, county, state and then the national government.

Miss Jennie Clement advanced some practical thoughts on the importance of teaching current events.

The question was asked, who is a good citizen? Answer, one who is true to himself, his country and his God.

Dr. Fraiser being present he was called on to address the institute. He said in part, Each teacher should be a sanitarian and called the teachers' attention to the fact of hereditary and infectious diseases. He spoke of tuberculosis and how it can be prevented to some extent. One seventh of the people who die in Kentucky come to their death by some form of tuberculosis. In the state of Kentucky during the last ten years we have had 200 people to die of small pox. 1,100 have died of some tuberculosis and he appealed to every teacher to use every sanitary precaution to prevent this plague.

School exhibits was fully discussed by Miss Fannie Gray. This work should not be an attempt to be perfect.

Reviews and examinations was discussed by the instructor. He made a strong talk on the poor and produced five principals on education. 1. Principle of application 2d. Cooperation. 3d. Graduation 4. Illustration 5. Repetition, and closed his talk by saying, "Review, review, review."

THURSDAY

Reading of scripture by Rev. Andres. In his prayer he very feelingly asked God's blessing upon the teachers, county superintendent and the educational interests of Crittenden county.

Prof. Cherry then addressed the institute and held their close attention for an hour and forty minutes.

Geography by Miss Mattie Perry. She teaches all classes of geography and uses illustrations, teaching physical geography by beginning with the school ground, studies the map as a whole, then each state, uses object lessons outside of the text book.

Synthetic method by Miss Mary Towsley. Begins with school house grounds, stories of little people in other countries.

Geographic geography by W. O. Wicker. He teaches the natural and artificial routes and pronounces from each country.

Methods of geographical study was very thoroughly brought out by W. S. McCloskey. Uses maps on the board, outlines. He makes one point after another, all directions from that products, minerals, etc.

Purposes of geographical study was discussed by Miss Sylva Travis who brought out some fine thoughts on the purpose of the study.

Economics was ably discussed by Burl Woodson.

School government, Discipline was discussed by P. M. Ward. He said "I am like the little boy what I haven't in my head, I have in my pocket. Discipline is good training."

Albert Crayne is moving from here to the Pleasant Hill neighborhood this week.

Our school teacher, Miss Hodge Rankin, visited her parents at Weston Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. S. B. Lamb had a bad fall and has been unable to walk for the past week.

Geo. Roberts has been on the sick list.

Miss Sylva Travis, who is teaching at Sturgis visited her parents

FRIDAY

Reading of scripture and prayer by Rev. Elgin.

Sensibilities, physical, psychical, sensations, instinct, emotions and affections were very clearly explained by the instructor.

History Miss Edna Roberts teaches history in relation to other studies. Also by maps

Its related studies by H. E. Minor. Geography and civil government. We need shorter methods. Followed by Miss Margaret Rankin. We need a combination of studies.

Ends to be attained. A. A. Fights.

History is a memory study. We should have frequent reviews and it should awaken a love for our country.

Uses of imagination in history by Misses Verda Quill and Myrtle Todd. Each read a fine paper on the subject. The instructor enforced this important feature in teaching history.

Miss Edna Roberts has pupils to bring out some important invention.

Physiology was next discussed by Dr. Vernon Fox. He teaches by outline and illustrated his method by a diagram on the board.

Physiology—Narcotics. A fine paper was read by Fred Stone. Miss Willie Carliss discussed accidents and poisons. Nervousness and its cause was discussed by Dr. L. F. Moore.

Interest and attention was discussed by the instructor. The pronunciation match was very interesting.

Some miscellaneous business and the institute closed by singing, "God be With you Till we Meet Again."

Prayer by Rev. Elgin and one of the best teachers institutes ever held in the county came to a close.

SUGAR GROVE.

The protracted meeting at this place closed Saturday night.

Albert Crayne is moving from here to the Pleasant Hill neighborhood this week.

Our school teacher, Miss Hodge Rankin, visited her parents at Weston Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. S. B. Lamb had a bad fall and has been unable to walk for the past week.

DYKESBURG.

There are winds and waves on the Cumberland.

Dr. T. J. Phillips had a serious attack of heart failure during a visit to Paducah last week. He however recovered and returned to his home and duties.

Mrs. P. K. Cooksey after a pleasant visit to Louisville is at home again.

Mr. A. Graves is having all tomato cans labeled and shipped to Mound City. Mr. Graves has proved himself to be a very good manager and the canning factory is said to have made a successful run this year. It is rumored that Mr. Polk of Mound City is tempted to the purchase of this excellent little plant at Dykesburg. If machinery that would can produce six months in the year were placed in the factory the financial advantage to the town and county would come way up in the figures.

The tomato crop alone puts thousands of dollars in circulation.

An infant child of Ed Henry was buried at the cemetery Friday.

Mr. J. R. Glass than whom no one man is more citizen has sold his home and made from town to Edens Camp off. While we welcome the new arrival to part with the out of date that Mr. and Mrs. Glass will continue to remain in modest circumstances here to make that these excellent people are on life's steady slope. It is said that would keep them.

Mr. H. Wolfe of Salem has been in Dykesburg the past week in the capacity of dentist.
